

Methodist Church Learning Package

(For Skills for Life Learners and Lifelong Learners)

This learning package shows you how to use Methodist Church records to research your family history. It focuses on James Copley, who was a member of Thorpe Hope Methodist Church in Thorpe Hesley. The learning package is divided into four parts that look at the different types of records a Methodist Church produces. The package uses images of archival documents with history tips, activities and questions that assist learners in using the records for family history.

There are two worksheets:

James Copley

This worksheet involves using the whole learning package to find personal information about James Copley.

Methodists Churches, Religious buildings and your Local Area

This worksheet focuses on finding Methodist Churches and other religious buildings in your local area.
